

CHICAGO HOME + GARDEN

LOVE WHERE YOU LIVE

GREAT KITCHENS & BATHS

New tabletop collections,
high-tech appliances,
nature-inspired faucets,
and more!

IN THIS ISSUE

◆ TAP TO JUMP ◆

FALL 2015

To make a bold statement in the living room, designer Stéphan Zennaro selected a large abstract painting by Amy Donaldson from Chicago Art Station.

← SCROLL FOR A COMPLETE VIEW →

MIXED MEDIA

A quaint home on a quiet street in Lincoln Park embraces its bohemian side.

BY TATE GUNNERSON • PHOTOGRAPHY BY MIKE SCHWARTZ

A colorful tribal rug from Jayson Home adds contrast in the foyer. "I don't necessarily care if everything matches," Zawloff says. "Layering adds character."

*In the dining room, an array of artwork creates an eclectic backdrop.
The chandelier is by Correy & Company.*

Built-in cabinets flank the wood-burning fireplace in the master suite's sitting area.

Light quartz countertops and a marble floor inlaid with wood balance the dark hues of the custom walnut cabinetry and navy subway tile from Waterworks. Zavell replaced the top of a Williams-Sonoma table with butcher block and paired it with a settee covered in French-ticking and Industry West chairs. The space's big star is a BlueStar—the brass-and-steel range, with custom hood.